

Rental and cancellation terms and conditions

You agree to comply with these rental and cancellation policies when purchasing products and services from the company.

The equipment is always handed over ready for use. Equipment rental is paid at the time of rental by card or invoice sent in advance by email. The lessor undertakes to return the equipment in the condition in which it was leased and, if necessary, to compensate for the damage and damage caused. The deductible for equipment broken during the rental period (careless or incorrect use) is 50% of the recommended price of the product. The customer is also liable for any damage caused to the equipment by other persons during the rental period and for the damage caused by their pets. The company checks the equipment after the rental and is obliged to report any damage caused by the rental of the rental instrument within two days of the transfer. The price of the rent includes the service of equipment. The customer is obliged to report any defects in the equipment immediately. The customer is responsible for complying with transport and safety regulations when using equipment and equipment. The rental period begins at a pre-agreed location when the equipment is picked up and ends at the agreed time when the equipment is received, or the customer leaves the equipment at a pre-agreed location during the agreed time. The customer is not allowed to rent the equipment further. If the customer has to cancel the reservation, the service provider must be notified immediately of the cancellation. If the customer cancels their reservation when the start of the reservation is less than 1 day, 50% of the rental price will be charged for the reservation. In cases of force major, the service provider may cancel the contract and the customer will be notified immediately. In this case, the customer has the right to receive the full refund of the price paid.

These rental and cancellation policies are valid until further notice.